ACG CapConn – You had To Be There Live

Vertical Capital Advisors Blog February 10, 2017

ALPHARETTA, GA – Yesterday was the final day of the annual pilgrimage to Atlanta for over a thousand finance professionals from across the country, all converging for the pinnacle event for professionals focused on helping businesses grow and thrive – the Association for Corporate Growth Capital Connection or ACG CapConn. #ACGATL #CapConn2017 <https://www.facebook.com/atlantaacg>

With over 200 exhibitors plus over 500 other capital providers in attendance, all hungry for equity, mezz and debt deals, David Esmie and I were in heaven for the past three days, starting with the private gatherings on Tuesday followed by two days of intensive networking and working sessions on Wednesday and Thursday. Here's a picture of me with long-time friend Gibby Thrift after he won a major award at the Chatham Capital soiree on Tuesday night at Ventana's:

Our feet were exhausted after three days of non-stop networking but the investment of time and energy was richly rewarded with numerous new relationships with new funding partners eager to see the client projects we are currently working on.
